End note #1: In our amended Pre-General report dated 1/5/07, we stated that the amendment included a debt schedule which had been added to disclose additional outstanding obligations incurred by the PAC for independent expenditure activity. We noted then, and again now in response to a Request for Additional Information (RFAI) from the Commission dated 2/13/07, that the amendment was necessary to revise the estimates for the independent expenditures which had been previously disclosed on 24 hour reports. Upon securing the final invoices for the charges the PAC incurred for this activity, we voluntarily took immediate action to disclose these updated figures with the Commission. At the same time, it also became apparent to us that we had inadvertently omitted a debt schedule from the original report and so included with the amendment the Schedule D to disclose the obligations as yet unpaid at the close of the reporting period.

Form/Schedule: SB23Transaction ID: B191988

End note #2: In our amended Pre-General report dated 1/5/07, it appears that we inadvertently omitted an endnote which would have answered the second point raised in the RFAI dated 2/13/07. The question concerned the memo entry on page 77 disclosing a non-monetary contribution of polling data by the PAC to AFSCME PEOPLE, another political committee. The PAC properly disclosed its own obligation to pay the full amount of the unpaid invoice ($5,500.00 to Peter Hart & Associates) for the data on Schedule D of our Amended October Monthly Report (p. 107 of the M10). Because PAC contributions to AFSCME PEOPLE are limited to $5,000/yr., we provided the $5,000.00 memo entry on page 77 of this report to publicly disclose the in-kind contribution. Pages 252 and 253 of our Post-General Report, as amended 1/5/07, lists the PAC's payment in full for this invoice to Peter Hart & Associates. The monetary transactions appear on Schedule E because the PAC's purchase of the polling data was part of our subsequent independent expenditures. AFSCME PEOPLE paid the PAC $500.00 for the remainder of the value of the polling data, a receipt that is disclosed on page 239 of the Post-General Report. To comply with regulations governing public disclosure of non-monetary contributions, we believe we have adequately provided information about these transactions by disclosing them as they occurred over the three reporting periods. It is also less confusing to the public than is the use of negative entries to 'back out' a transaction from one line to move it to another itemized line on the Detailed Summary Page.

End note #7: In response to the fifth point raised in the RFAI dated 2/13/07, we have added the name of our Treasurer to each page of Schedule E supporting Line 24. Please note however, that the electronic signature provided on the cover page of every electronically filed report itself serves as a statement that all data within is true and accurate according to the best available data at the time the report is filed. Because the same Schedule E is also used separately as a 24 or 48 hour report as needed throughout a given election period, it is then that the requirement to electronically sign each page is required because there would otherwise be no such commitment shown to the public in a cover page. Further, you will find that each and every 24 and 48 hour report that we did file throughout 2006 included this electronic signature to attest to the items listed on the Schedule E.

End note #8: In response to the sixth point in the RFAI, there was no contribution to the PAC by any labor organization. The sum here reflects payments by the PAC to its connected organization, UNITE HERE, and a UNITE HERE local union affiliate, UNITE HERE Local 34, for services performed for the PAC by respective regular employees of those organizations in accordance with analogous 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f)(2)(i)(A). These payments were routinely timed so that the respective union had been paid for its employee's services by the date the union made its own regular compensation payments to the employees for the particular payroll period. All payments fully paid for the services rendered, measured by the respective union's full and regular compensation costs for these employees.

End note #9: In response to the final point raised concerning timely filing of 48-hour reports, the PAC made good faith efforts to comply with all regulations regarding pre-election public disclosure. As should be evident from a review of all of the 48-hour and later 24-hour reports, as well as the regular full reports, our goal was to disclose all information in painstaking detail. Our earlier endnotes in this amendment reference the records we kept of both the best estimates available at the time we calculated that we were required to file 48-hour reports and the subsequent final amounts once the PAC received more accurate pricing information or actual invoices from its vendors. It was quite difficult to assign and track the percentages of salaries of employees attributable to the PAC's ongoing independent expenditures, as opposed to the PAC's general operations, and we continued to disclose the best available information at the earliest required moment – most often by reporting payroll amounts ahead of when people were actually paid (for example, a payment of $7,940.00 could include $900 per day for the next several days). After a voluntary review of our records indicated that we needed to disclose differing amounts for the actual final expenditures, we took great strides to disclose how the original estimates provided in our 48-hour reports connected with the final amounts required to be disclosed by the new information provided to us by our vendors. We would also point out that the Commission's regulations and guidances do not definitively explain how to distinguish between costs that are attributable to independent expenditures and those that are attributable to administration and overhead, and some spending that was of a research nature was not necessarily attributable to the independent expenditures that were eventually made. For example, the poll that was commissioned from vendor Peter Hart & Associates, which cost the PAC $5,500 and was dated September 30 (though not paid until October 30, pursuant to the contractual relationship with this vendor), was not necessarily in fact an independent expenditure cost. After some internal review and analysis, the PAC ultimately determined to err on the side of caution and so report it. If that expense commitment had been attributed to another disbursement category, such as federal operating expenses, then the $10,000 reporting threshold would have been reached even later, and very possibly rightly so given the legal uncertainty about the correct treatment of the poll. There was no intent or effort to delay or withhold required disclosures, and we believe the PAC did fully disclose all of its independent expenditures in a timely manner to the best of its ability. We would also point out that under any characterization of particular disbursements and commitments to make disbursements, all independent expenditures were fully reported prior to the November 7 general election.
